

King's College London

MSc Global Human Resource Management

100% online | Part time | Normally 2 years

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

Explore human resources, employment relations, organisational behaviour and strategic issues in global organisations through research-informed, practice-led learning.

STUDY AREAS

- Strategic human resources and talent management
- Recruitment, learning and development
- Organisational change and ethical practice
- Research and consulting projects linked to organisational challenges

ENTRY & STUDY ARRANGEMENTS

Academic qualifications, relevant work experience and English proficiency are assessed against the university's latest requirements. Module availability may change by academic year. Language waivers and admission are not guaranteed.

Historical university brochures are available separately for course background. Their fees, dates, rankings and admissions policies are not current offers.

FEES & NEXT STEPS

Ask UKEC to confirm current tuition, currency, payment stages, additional costs and intake dates in writing. Admission is decided by the university.